

Classics Faculty Teaching in Easter Term

In accordance with Government and University guidelines there will be no on-site teaching until at least 17 May. Some on-site teaching, on the model of what happened in Michaelmas, will resume as soon as it becomes possible.

Some lectures may be recorded and made available on Moodle in advance, some may be live-streamed and uploaded to Moodle after the lecture, and where they are made available in advance some live Q & A sessions will be scheduled. All details will be given on the Moodle site for each course.

Language class details will be communicated to students by the Language Teaching Officers.
