

CLASSICS ART COMPETITION

Time and Memory

Further Information

Our annual competition is back for 2023 but this time with a difference. We want you to communicate the ancient world through Art. This can include painting, drawing, a photo or photography series, or even a sculpture. We are looking for creative and exciting entries that explore the ancient world and present it in a visually interesting way.

Who is eligible?

The competition is open to all students in school years 9-13.
This year we are asking for individual entries.

The Theme

This year's theme is Time and Memory in the Ancient World. You might look to represent timekeeping devices in ancient Greece, memorials from Ancient Rome, or something more philosophical about how we perceive time and memory in relation to antiquity- go wherever the muses take you.

The Medium

Choose the artistic medium that you think would work best to present your topic. Make sure that your piece looks thought-provoking and appealing. Remember that you want to interest and intrigue your audience – and the judges!

Accompanying Text

Imagine your work is being exhibited in a gallery. Write a description of your work in 500 words or less, which explains its link to the theme, to be displayed alongside it.

If you are exploring ideas from academic works or translations you have read, please include references to these works. You do not have to count references towards your word count.

The Prize(s)

There will be two prizes awarded in the competition- one for the best artwork and another for the best historical engagement

The prize for each winner will be a share of £250 as well as being published on our website and social media pages for all to see.
