It has been eventful year for the Museum of Classical Archaeology – and one full of changes. We have had another busy year for exhibitions, said hello to two new members of staff and at the end of April 2019 we began closing on Mondays so that we could focus on essential collections care projects.

Events

- Drink & Draw
  - 3 Hours
  - 143 Visitors

- Bridging Binaries
  - 12 LGBTQ+ Tours
  - 100 Visitors

- Twilight
  - 3 Hours
  - 283 Visitors

- Festival of Ideas
  - 7 Events
  - 389 Visitors

- 5 Latin Clubs in local primary schools

Outreach

- Adult Groups
  - 1505

- Schools
  - 1355

General Visitors

- Visitors
  - 13,771

- 43 events including...

Higher Education

- Visitors
  - 4915

Figures taken from:

October 2018–September 2019
Exhibitions & Displays

3000 squeezes

New cataloguing and reboxing project

Layers of Landscape

Ashkelon

Loukas Morley

Cambridge Community Arts

Marian Maguire

300 new boxes

1 volunteer

15,000 Objects

100% complete

Sherd Inventory

New Catalogue under development

427 Hours

were given by...

Volunteers

49

Telemetrics System installed

100% of high-hanging casts in the gallery condition assessed

New cataloguing and reboxing project

Layers of Landscape

Telemetrics System installed

Layers of Landscape

Antinous: Boy made God

Ashmolean Museum

Exhibitions & Displays

3000 squeezes

New cataloguing and reboxing project

Layers of Landscape

Telemetrics System installed

Layers of Landscape