

FURTHER INFORMATION

Our annual audio-visual competition is back for 2021 and it is bigger and better than ever. We want you to communicate the ancient world through ANY type of Audio-Visual format you like. This can include film clips, a photography series, perhaps a podcast, music recording, or even a dance performance! We are looking for creative and exciting entries that explore the ancient world and present it in a new media format.

Teams

Teams can have up to 4 members, from year 9 to year 13 (ages 13-19.)

You do not all have to appear in the piece as you may wish to spread the tasks involved, such as directing, recording, editing and presenting/performing.

You can also apply as an individual.

The Theme

Select a topic: This year your piece can be centred on *kleos and/or construction in the ancient world. You might look to answer a historical question, consider a piece of ancient literature or Greek Tragedy, or discuss an ancient object or city- go wherever the muses take you.

kleos*- (glory, fame) in Ancient Greek

The Medium

Choose the Audio-visual format you think would work best to present your topic. Make sure that your piece looks and/or sounds thought-provoking and appealing. Remember that you want to interest and intrigue your audience – and the judges!

Video and music clips up to 4 minutes

Podcasts up to 5 minutes

The Prize(s)

The prize will be a share of £750 as well as being published on our website and social media pages for all to see.

The judges will be looking for creative and exciting entries that have used your chosen media format effectively to bring the subject to life.

FURTHER INFORMATION

How to Enter

To enter a video or audio clip, first upload your entry onto Youtube (www.youtube.com) This is an easy way to ensure that entries are of a similar size and quality and enables you to retain control and copyright of your film. Once the video clip has been uploaded, you can add the URL to your application form. Still images (such as a photo series) can be attached to an email or you can send a link to a gallery hosted online via the application form.

Please fill out the application form (here) making sure to include the link to your completed entry and email your completed Declaration form to access@classics.cam.ac.uk

Closing date: 20th December 2021

Good Luck!!

Guidance on uploading films to YouTube can be found at: support.google.com/youtube/ This includes information for converting file formats and uploading from mobile devices. If you wish to mention that your clip is an entry for our competition, you must include the following disclaimer in the written description of the video: 'The views and opinions in this film are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of any member of the Faculty of Classics, University of Cambridge'

Copyright

Anything that you quote in the piece should be acknowledged in a written or spoken form. Please remember that permission should be sought to use any image, music or film that is in copyright and if granted, credit must be given at the end of the film. You can find guidance about what copyright is, what it applies to, who owns it and how long it lasts at <http://www.ipo.gov.uk/types/copy.html>

Privacy Notice

The Faculty of Classics (University of Cambridge) uses personal information solely for the purposes of administering the AV Classics Competition. We do not pass on or sell personal information and/or contact details to any third parties. We may use anonymised and aggregated information for reporting our activity to the University of Cambridge. For more information about our privacy practices please visit <https://www.information-compliance.admin.cam.ac.uk/data-protection/general-data>