

Twenty-sixth meeting

The twenty-sixth meeting was held on Friday
January 25th in Dr. Eden's Room in Trinity Hall.

In the absence of the President Mr W. K. C. Gullerrie took the chair. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved
Mr R. L. Howland (St John's) read a paper entitled 'Isocrates' influence on Plato'. A discussion followed.

February 4th 1935

J M Cornford

Twenty-seventh Meeting

The twenty-seventh meeting was held on Monday February 4th in Dr. Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read & approved, Mr A.H. Armstrong, of our classical Faculty library, read a paper entitled Plato & Neoplatonism. A discussion followed.

February 18th 1935

J.M. Cornford

The Twenty - eighth Meeting

The twenty-eight meeting was held on Monday February 18th in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved Dr E. Conze, of London, read a paper entitled 'Origins of Logic in Greece'. A discussion followed.

March 1st 1935

J. M. Comford

Twenty-Ninth Meeting

The Twenty-ninth meeting was held on Friday March 1st in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved, Prof. F. M. Cornford was re-elected President, the Rev. C. F. Angus Treasurer, and Mr A. H. Armstrong was elected Secretary.

Prof J. L. Stocks, of Manchester, then read a paper entitled 'The concept of exotiké and its place in Aristotle's thought'. A discussion followed.

F M Cornford

Thirtieth Meeting

The thirtieth meeting was held on on Friday October 18th in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved the Treasurer proposed that in view of the heavy expenditure on travelling expenses of outside speakers the purchase of cigarettes from the Club subscription should be discontinued and the subscription raised to 2/6 a term instead of 2/-. The proposal was carried. After this Mr D. M. Balme, of Clare College, read a paper entitled "Necessity and Accident in Aristotle's Philosophy". A discussion followed.

J M Cornford

Vera Leticia A.T. Nichol Mrs.

Thirty-first meeting

The thirty-first meeting was held on Monday October 28th in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved Miss A. T. Nichol of Newnham read a paper on "Indivisible Lines". A discussion followed.

F M Cornford

Thirty-Second Meeting

The Thirty-Second Meeting was held on Friday November the 8th in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved Mr D. J. Allan of Balliol College, Oxford, read a paper on "Intellectual Virtue in the Ethics of Aristotle". A discussion followed.

J. M. Corry

Thirty-Third Meeting:

The Thirty-Third meeting was held on Friday November the 22nd in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved Professor R. B. Onians of Swansea read a paper on "Some Early Greek Ideas about the Mind". A discussion followed.

W. K. C. Butler

Thirty-Fourth Meeting

The Thirty-Fourth meeting was held on Friday January the 24th in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved Mr J. N. Sanders of Peterhouse read a paper on "The Doctrine of God in the Philosophy of S. Thomas Aquinas and its Debt to Greek Philosophy". A discussion followed. In the absence of the President the chair was taken by Mr W. K. C. Guthrie.

R. Hargrave

Thirty-Fifth Meeting

The Thirty-Fifth Meeting was held on Monday February the 10th in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. In the absence of the President the chair was taken by Mr R. Hackforth. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved Mr D. R. Dudley read a paper on "Diogenes of Sinope". A discussion followed.

H. Rackham

Thirty-Sixth Meeting

The Thirty-Sixth Meeting was held on Friday February the 21st in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. In the absence of the President the chair was taken by Mr H. Rackham. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved Mr H. D. P. Lee, of Corpus Christi College, read a paper on "The Legal Background of Two Passages in Aristotle's Ethics." A discussion followed.

W. K. C. Sullivan

The Thirty-Seventh Meeting

The Thirty-Seventh Meeting was held on Monday March the 2nd in Dr Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. In the absence of the President the chair was taken by Mr W. K. C. Guthrie. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved ~~a discussion took~~ Professor F. M. Cornford was elected President for the ensuing year, the Rev. C. F. Angus Treasurer, and Mr J. N. Sanders secretary. A discussion then took place upon the Platonist and Aristotelian views of the Immortality of the Soul, the first speakers being Mr J. N. Sanders, of Peterhouse, (Platonist) and Mr Balme of Clare College (Aristotelian).

R. H. A. J. H.
Oct. 19th 1926

The Thirty-Eighth Meeting

The Thirty-Eighth Meeting was held on Monday October 19th in Dr. Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. In the absence of the President the chair was taken by Mr. R. Hackforth. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved, the Treasurer proposed a subscription of two shillings for the ensuing term, and this was approved unanimously. When the Chairman had explained that Prof. Crawford was unable to read his paper on 'Rational Necessity in the Timaeus' and that Dr. A. C. Ewing, of Trinity Hall, had kindly consented to take his place, Dr. Ewing read a paper on 'Aristotle's and some Modern Ethics contrasted'. A discussion followed, and the meeting was adjourned at ten minutes past 10 p.m.

J. M. Crawford

The Thirty-Ninth Meeting.

The Thirty-Ninth meeting was held on Friday October 30th at 8.30 pm. in Dr. Eden's Room in Trinity Hall. The President was in the chair. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved, it was decided that the date of the last meeting of the term should be changed from Friday November 27th to Monday the 30th, if the later date were convenient to the reader. Professor E.R. Dodds of Oxford then read a paper on 'Hellenism in Philosophy'. A discussion followed, and the meeting was adjourned at 10.15 pm.

A. Rackham

16 Nov. 1936

The Fortieth Meeting.

- The fortieth meeting was held in Dr. Eder's Room in Trinity Hall, ^{on Monday Nov. 16} at 8.45 p.m. The late start was due to the occupation of the room by a party of diners who only retired at the urgent request of the Treasurer. When the club had taken possession, amid a certain confusion, the chair was taken by Mr. H. Rackham. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved, it was arranged that the ^{next} ~~last~~ meeting should be held on Monday November 30th and that the members should be notified if the meeting was to be held elsewhere than in Dr Eder's Room. Professor Comford then read a paper on 'Reason and Necessity in the Timaeus'. A discussion followed, and the meeting was adjourned at 10.5 p.m.

J M Comford

30 : XI : '36

The Forty-First Meeting.

The forty-first meeting was held in Dr. Eden's Room in Trinity Hall on Monday November 30th at 8.30 pm. The President was in the chair. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved, Dr. R. Paget, of the Papworth Institute and late of the University of Heidelberg, read a paper upon 'Some Medico-Historical Aspects of Lynx Biology'. A discussion followed, and the meeting was adjourned at 10.10 pm.

M. Sandbach

Jan 29. 1937