

Welcome to Lucius' Farm!

Salve!
Ego Lucius
sum.

Hello! I am Lucius.

The Latin word
for farm
is fundus

Today, Lucius is going to teach us
the Latin names
for the animals we find
on his farm.
Are you ready to learn?

Bonus Exercise

Count up the number of mud splats you see
on the next pages and write the total in Latin

"oh-wiss"

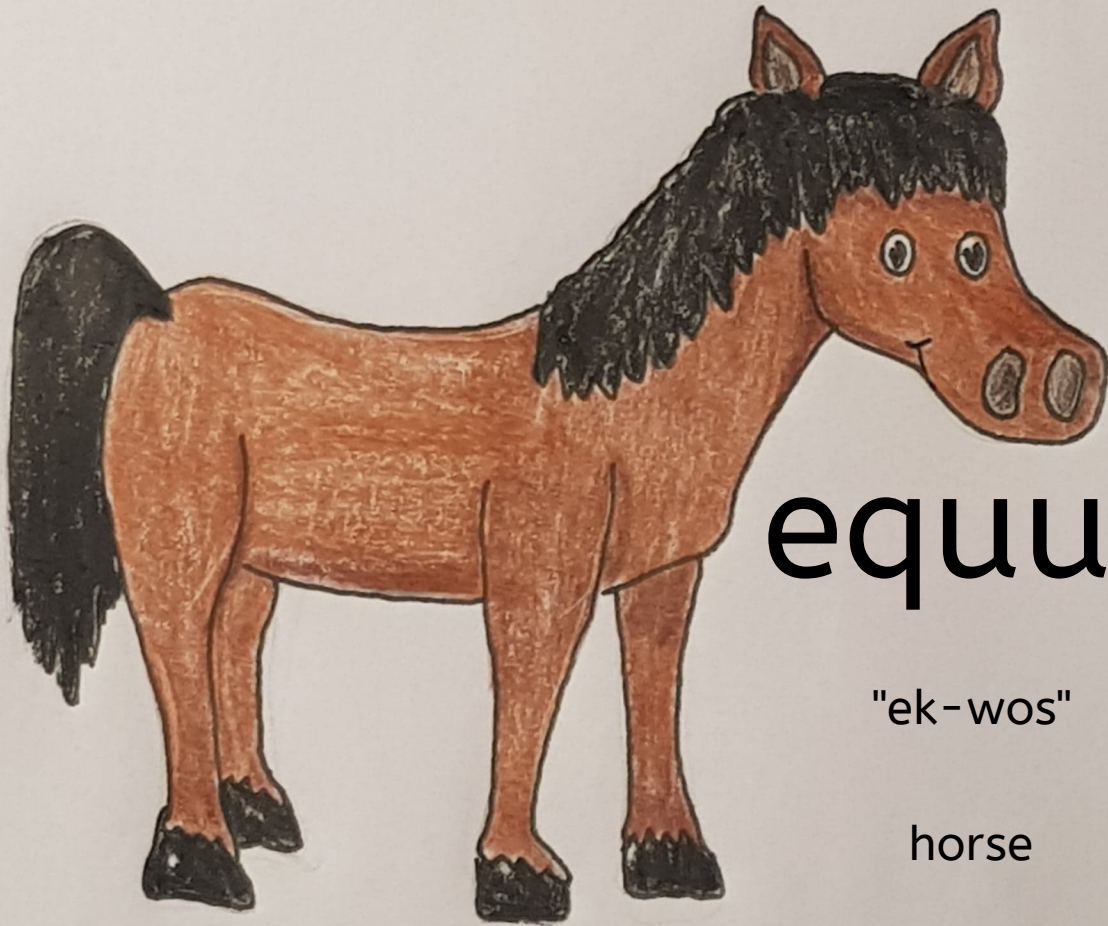

ovis

porcus

"pork-us"

pig

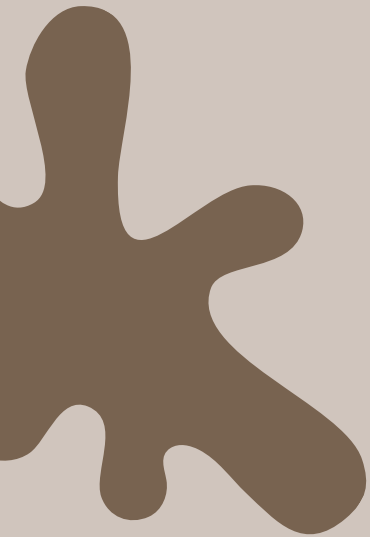

equus

"ek-wos"

horse

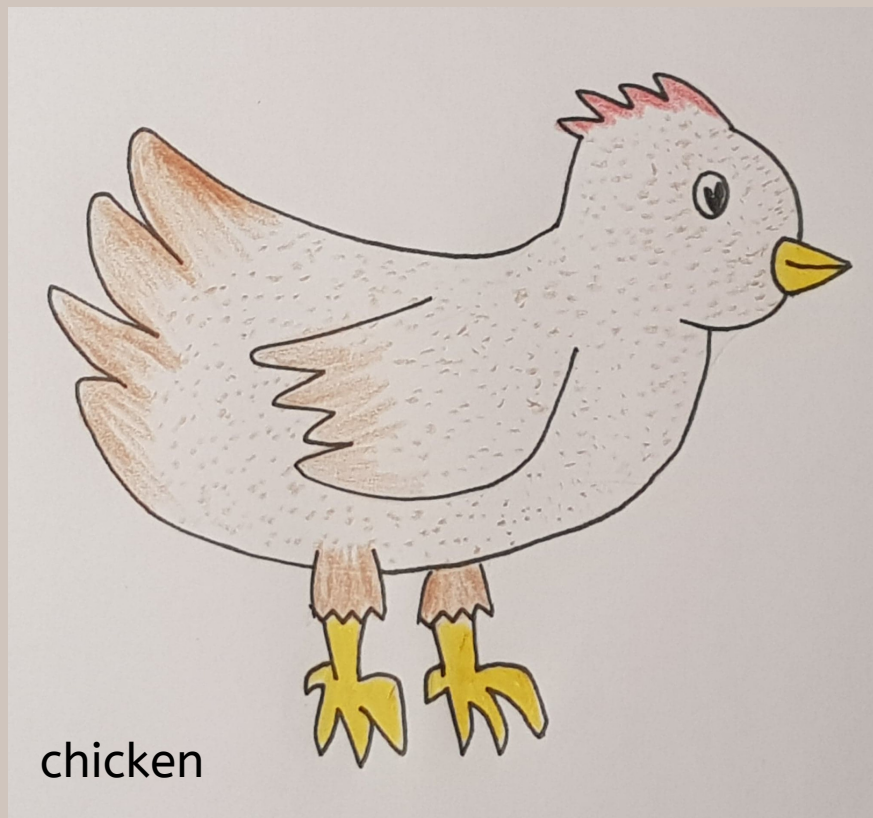

canis

"can-is"

dog

"pull-us"

pullus

cockerel

gallus

"gall-us"

fox

vulpes

"wool-pays"

vacca

"wah-kah"

COW

How many mud splats did you count?

Vale!
Goodbye!

Thank you, Lucius! Now it's time to move on to the activity to find out how many Latin
names for animals you remember!

Helper Notes:

- Make sure the learner can identify each animal in English.
- Try pronouncing the Latin.
- After the learner has read through the list, cover the pictures first, and then the words, to check that they can recall each animal name in Latin.

Flip Upside Down For Answer to Bonus

Exercise:

There are five mud splats. The Latin for five is quintus.