Privacy Notice

The Faculty of Classics (University of Cambridge) uses personal information solely for the purposes of administering the Make Your Myth Competition. Entries must be submitted by an adult and any contact details provided must belong to the adult submitting the entry. We do not pass on or sell personal information and/or contact details to any third parties. We may use anonymised and aggregated information for reporting our activity to the University of Cambridge. The legal basis for processing personal data of children is consent; consent must be provided by a child's parent/guardian by signing and scanning in/posting the Parental Consent Form. The Parental Consent Form must be submitted at the same time as the competition entry.

You can change your mind about submitting personal information at any time by contacting us at schools.liaison@classics.cam.ac.uk. We will treat your information with respect. For more information about our privacy practices please visit https://www.information-compliance.admin.cam.ac.uk/data-protection/general-data. By signing this form, you agree that we may process personal information in accordance with these terms. The personal information you have submitted will be kept for one year after the winning entries have been announced. After that date, all personal information will be permanently deleted; anonymised stories and artwork may be kept. Winning entries will be shared on the Faculty of Classics website and social media; only the child's first name and age will be attached to published entries.
