Salve! I'm Marcus.
Would you like to meet my family?

My dad,
Gaius

My mum,
Antonia

My brothers, Augustus and Julius

meus avus et mea avia.

tres sorores.

My sisters, Livia,
Flavia and Cornelia

My Grandparents,
Tiberius and Julia

mea mater.

meus pater.

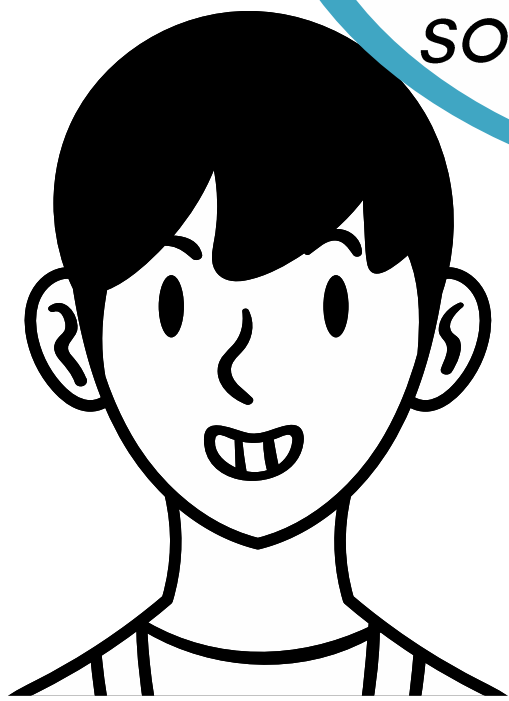

duo fratres.

How did it go?

Introducing Everyone

If I want to say my sister is Cornelia in Latin. I say: mea soror est Cornelia

Using the pictures to help can you help me complete these sentences?

meus frater est.....

meus avia est.....

meus pater est.....

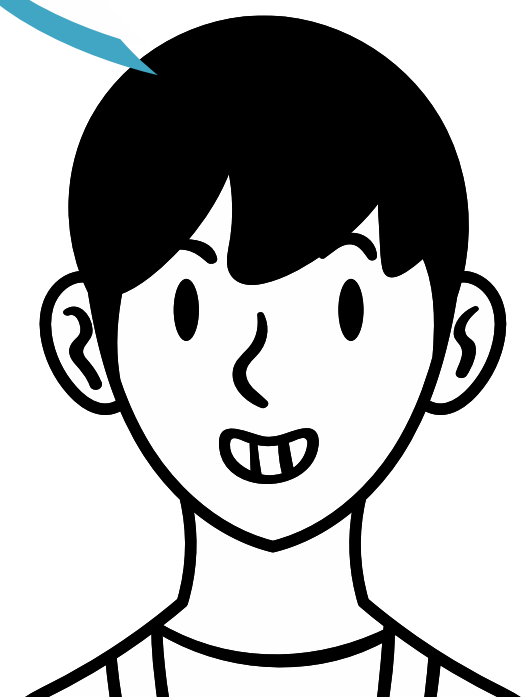

If I tell you that I have one grandad I'll say

Unum avum habeo

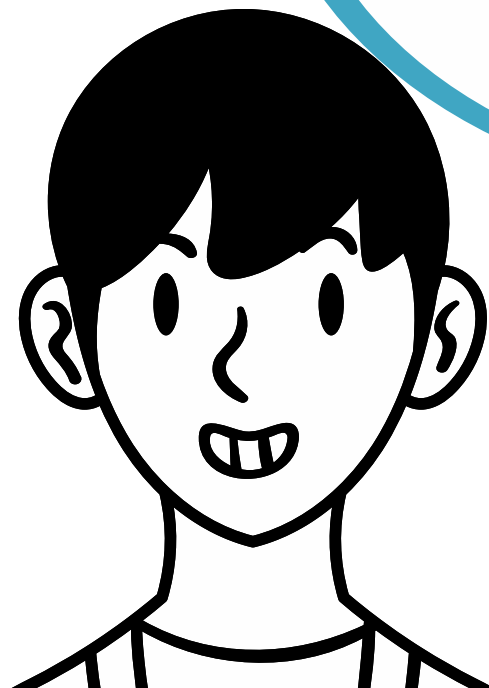

This is called the accusative!

In these sentences, my family are the subject but they can be the object too!

Family and the Accusative

I am going to list my family members.
Can you list yours?

*unum patrem, unam matre, unum
avum, unam aviam, tres sorores, duo fratres habeo*

Can you list yours?

I have = habeo; 1 sister = unam sororem;
1 brother = unum fratrem; 2 grandads = duo avos;
2 grandmas = duo avias; 2 mums = duo matres;
2 dads = duo patres;
